

I have heard that you are considering some changes to how FM radio is presented here in Johnston.

I hope that does not include taking stations like K-LOVE off of the air and replacing them with clones of the existing broadcasters.

K-LOVE and stations like it fill a need in our society for stations that are family-safe and educational. The religious content is also welcome.

Many of the local stations have content that is, at best, questionable and is usually objectionable.